

Independent Review of Aid Effectiveness

> Purpose

- Commissioned by Minister for Foreign Affairs, the Hon Kevin Rudd MP, on 16 November 2010
- Thorough examination of the aid program
 - Opportunities for increased effectiveness and efficiencies
 - Improving strategic direction for the next 5 years and beyond
- Review panel:
 - Sandy Hollway AO (Chair), Prof Stephen Howes, Hon Margaret Reid AO, Bill Farmer AO, John WH Denton

Independent Review of Aid Effectiveness

> Method

- Public submissions
- Consultations
- Australian government
- Parliamentarians
- AusAID staff
- International discussions
- Commissioned studies
- Stocktake of other recent evaluations
- Online media
- Academic conference
- Disability Leaders Forum
- Academic literature

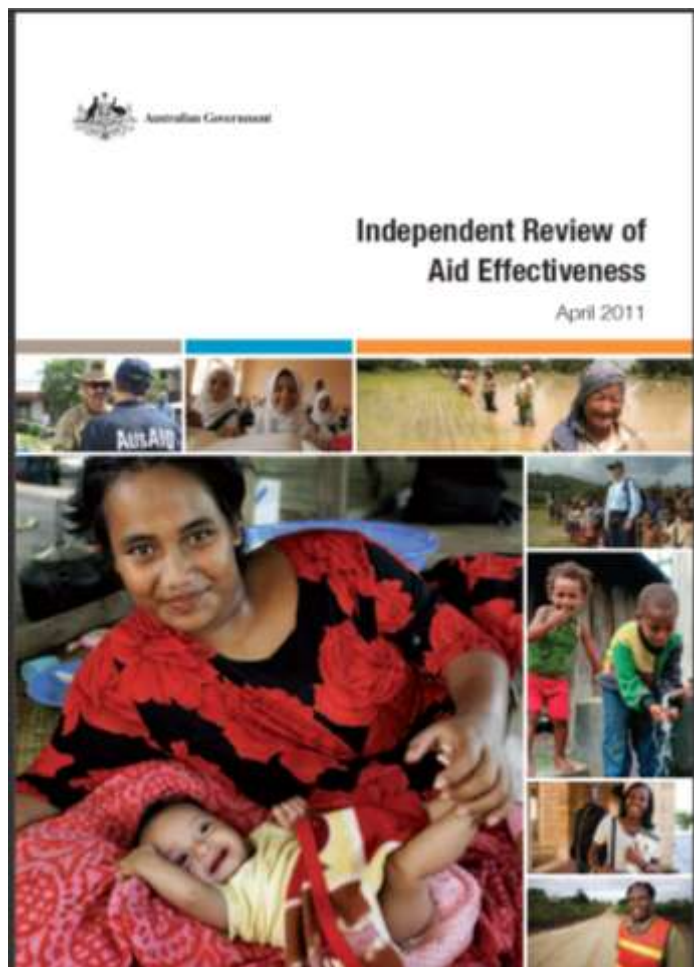

Independent Review of Aid Effectiveness

> Findings

- Current Australian aid program fundamentally sound
 - Proposed changes build on what already exists
- Main challenge: Rapid growth of the program
 - Quality can be maintained if a methodical program of improvement and change is pursued over the next five years.

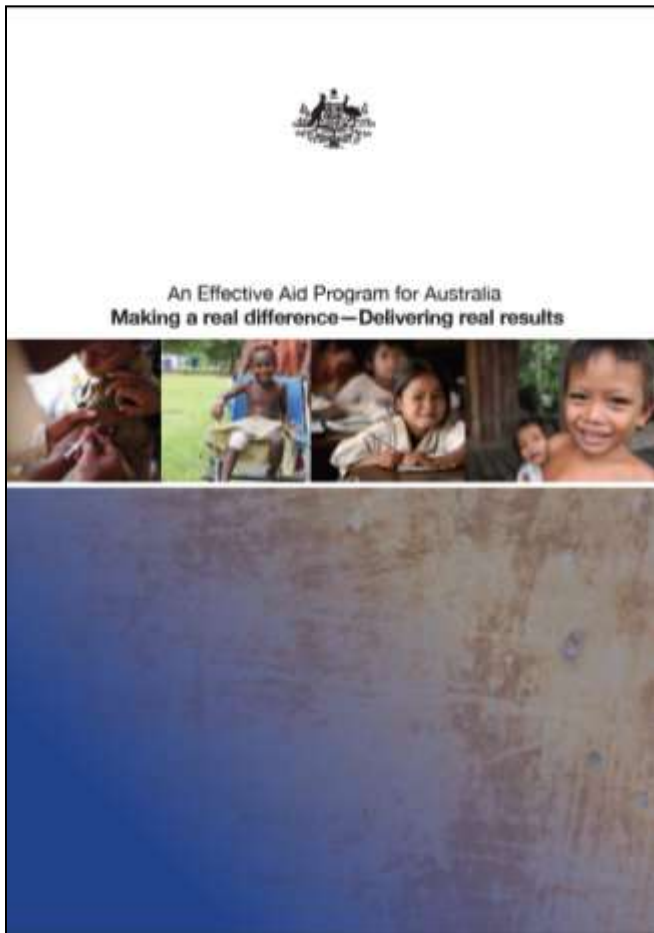

Independent Review of Aid Effectiveness

- > 39 recommendations including 4 high-level organising themes:
- Investing in pro-poor, sustainable economic growth
 - Promoting opportunities for all
 - Supporting social stability, improving the quality of government and strengthening civil society, and
 - Preparing for and responding to crises.

An Effective Aid Program for Australia

Making a Real Difference – Delivering Real Results

- > Government Response to the Independent Review of Aid Effectiveness
- > Agrees with 38 of the 39 recommendations (or agrees in principle)
 - One further recommendation noted and will be responded to later

An Effective Aid Program for Australia

Making a Real Difference – Delivering Real Results

> Purpose of the Aid Program:

- Help people overcome poverty

> Also:

- Promote stability and prosperity in our region and beyond
- Focus our efforts
 - in areas where Australia can make a difference
 - where our resources can most effectively and efficiently be deployed

An Effective Aid Program for Australia

Making a Real Difference – Delivering Real Results

> Making Australian aid more effective

- A clear strategy
- Value for money
- Importance of consolidation
- Focusing on risk management and performance oversight
 - Fraud control
 - Performance management
 - Acting when aid programs are not delivering
- A transparent aid program focused on results
 - Transparency
 - Focus on results
- Involving the Australian community
- Effective aid management – the role of AusAID

An Effective Aid Program for Australia

Making a Real Difference – Delivering Real Results

> What will Australian aid focus on?

– 5 core strategic goals

- Saving lives
- Promoting opportunities for all
- Sustainable economic development
- Effective governance
- Humanitarian and disaster response

– 10 individual development objectives flow from these goals

An Effective Aid Program for Australia

Making a Real Difference – Delivering Real Results

Framework for the Australian Aid Program

Promoting opportunities for all

Giving more children access to school

Empowering women to participate in the economy, leadership and education

Enhancing the lives of people with disabilities

People overcome poverty.

poverty both in our region and beyond.
s can most effectively and efficiently be deployed.

Effective governance

Improving governance to deliver better services, improve security, and enhance justice and human rights

Humanitarian and disaster response

More effective preparedness and responses to disasters and crises

Effectively

Transparency
Results

Transparency Charter with clear and more accessible reporting of aid activities

Target reporting linked
results

Proactive action on non-performing programs

Involving the Australian community

Increased volunteer and NGO support

Partnerships with business and academia

An Effective Aid Program for Australia

Making a Real Difference – Delivering Real Results

> Where Australia will provide aid:

Photo: AusAID

- Asia-Pacific will remain the focus
- Aid to South Asia, including Pakistan, Afghanistan, Africa and the Middle East, will increase
- Bilateral programs in China and India phased out
- Modest increases in aid to Latin America and the Caribbean

What does this mean for the AusAID DID team?

- > Disability inclusive development (DID) is a priority
- > Australia is a leader in disability inclusive development
- > Development for All strategy
 - Increased profile
 - Renewed and expanded mandate

What does this mean for the AusAID DID team?

> Opportunities

- Increased profile with Parliament House

What does this mean for the AusAID DID team?

> Opportunities

- Increased profile with AusAID executive and AusAID staff

Photo: AusAID

What does this mean for the AusAID DID team?

> Opportunities

- Need to continue mainstreaming

What does this mean for the AusAID DID team?

> Opportunities

- Need to demonstrate results

What does this mean for the AusAID DID team?

> Opportunities

- Need to continue listening to the voice of people with disabilities
 - Disability Reference Group
 - In-country contacts

Photo: AusAID

Where to next for the AusAID DID team?

> Challenges

- AusAID is a busy rapidly growing agency with numerous competing priorities
 - ODA doubling from 2007 level to 0.5% GNI in 2015
- Good momentum in some areas, but many areas where few signs of change
- Meeting demand
 - ability to respond to AusAID staff requests for advice and assistance
- Demonstrating results

Where to next for the AusAID DID team?

> Next Steps

- Mid-term review
- Internal communication strategy
- Political and agency leadership
- Making disability inclusive development part of the way we do business
- Finalising the performance assessment framework/ results framework
- Continuing to play an active role on the international stage

Working together to raise awareness of DID

Photo: AusAID

- > Working through the Disability Reference Group
- > Advocating for an increased focus on DID in the aid program
 - Focus on results
- > Sharing information

Australian Government
AusAID

Thank You

AusAID Disability Inclusive Development website: www.ausaid.gov.au/keyaid/disability.cfm

Development for All strategy: www.ausaid.gov.au/developmentforall.cfm

DfA companion volume: www.ausaid.gov.au/developmentforall-companion.cfm

Independent Review of Aid Effectiveness: www.aidreview.gov.au/index.html

An Effective Aid Program for Australia
Making a Real Difference – Delivering Real Results:

www.ausaid.gov.au/publications/aidreview-response/effective-aid-program-for-australia.pdf

www.ausaid.gov.au